A WAVE OF CRIME

Chicago Police Confronted by Baffling Murder Mysterfes.

NEGRO ATTACKS WHITE GIRL

Sunday Was a Day of Many Crimes in the Great City—Child Attacked by Negro Brute Was Only Six Years of Age.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Chicago appeared Sunday to have been seized by a veritable wave of crime, and when the last reports of the day were in, the police were confronted with two baffling murder mysteries, one murde rand a suicide and one killing in which the murderer fled.

In addition there was another attack upon a white girl by a negro, the victim in the last case being a child six years of age.

Following is a summary of the day's crimes:

Body of Joseph Genissiti taken from the lake at the foot of Twelfth street; police think it a murder.

Ross C. Price murders his wife because the baby cries all night, and then commits suicide.

John Goss, struck on head with an iron bar in quarrel; murderer made his escape.

Hilda Anderson, six years of age, latest victim of attack by negroes, and fifth to be reported to the poice within ten days.

LIGHT THROWN ON MYSTERY

Charred Bones of Murdered Man Are Found in Cave.

New York, Oct. 1.—The disappearance of Abraham Gill, of Brooklyn, a year ago, which was followed by an exhaustive search, has been partially explained in dispatches to his relatives here from Landusky, Mont.

The truth seems to be that Gill was murdered, for charred bones supposed to be his have been found in a cave near the ranch he owned in Montana.

Gill was a member of a good family and a graduate of the Brooklyn Polytechnic institute. After graduation he bought a ranch in Montana and prospered. He then took James Winters into partnership and did even better. He eventually sold his interest in the ranch. Prior to this, however, as a United States deputy marshal he broke up a gang of bad characters in Montana.

It is supposed that the man to whom he sold the ranch was a member of the gang, for it is known that the night the sale was closed this man rode away with Gill. Since that fatal night Gill has never been seen.

Federal and private detectives made search for him, but without avail. Gill's horse was found near a cave, and in that cave his relatives learn, the bones supposed to be his were found.

Atlanta Boy Cremated in Wreck.

Atlanta, Oct. 1.—News was received in Atlanta Sunday that the body of Claude Ray, the young Atlanta boy who was killed some time ago in San Bernardino, Cal., was cremated in the accident. The first report received by the parents of young Ray, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ray, was to the effect that their son met death in a railroad accident, his body being crushed in a wreck. It was further said the body would arrive in Atlanta the latter part of the week. A telegram was received, however, saying the body had been cremated.

Released from Murder Trial.

Eufaula, Ala., Oct. 1.—Jim Freeman, the one-arm white man who shot and killed Joe Guice, a negro employe of the Fussell brick yard near Georgetown Thursday night, was honorably dismissed by the coroner who pronounced the cause of death justifiable homicide. It has been learned here that Freeman would have been brained by the negro had he not have acted quickly, and it is not thought the grand jury will find a bill against him.

SAVANNAH AND PROHIBITION.

Question Is, Will It Be Effective There After January 1st.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 1.—Will whisky be sold in Savannah After Jan. 1st next?

This is the general inquiry, and the answer "Yes" is just about as general. One would have a hard time to induce the people of Savannah to believe that the enactment of the state prohibition law is going to mean that the sale of intoxicants is to be stopped.

It is said that the Savannah Brewing company expects to continue in the brewing business after January 1, but will turn out a product that will not be thrown out under the test of the prohibition law. Some non-intoxicating drink, it is said, will be made.

Speculation is afoot as to whether the local authorities would lend a very willing hand to the apprehension and punishment of blind tigers. It is not believed that the local authorities would adopt the spy system in ferreting out blind tigers, and it is said that the spy system would be the only effective means of putting the tigers on the run.

A number of those engaged in the liquor business here, wholesale or retail, are making arrangements to open places elsewhere. Jacksonville is the mecca toward which most of them will be turning their faces. The hegira will start even before the end of the year. Some of the liquor houses are to be removed to points north and others to points west. They will endeavor to retain their present clientele as largely as possible.

INTEREST IN MURDER TRIAL.

Was Dr. Rowland a "Dr. Jekyle and Mr. Hyde" in Real Life?

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 1.—A murder trial of widespread interest is scheduled to begin here Monday when Dr. Thomas L. Rowland and his second wife, the widow of Charles R. Strange, a locomotive engineer, are to face the charge of having murdered Mr. Strange by poison.

Efforts will be made to prove that Dr. Rowland was a "Dr. Jekyle and Mr. Hyde" in real life, and that to all appearances he led an exemplary existence, while secretely making a study of deadly poisons and plotting murders. He was even arrested on a charge of having poisoned his own child to get some insurance money, but he was let go because the chemists could find no trace of poison in the tests which they made.

Judge B. F. Long is to preside at the trial. A special venire of 150 men has been drawn for service in this jury.

Die dfrom Obesity.

Eufaula, Ala., Oct. 1.—Mary Sylvester, a well known negress here, died under conditions never before known in the history of this city or section. About a year ago the woman, who was 64 years of age, was seized with what was thought to have been dropsical affection, and her body began to swell, and although she was treated in the usual way, no relief came, and she gradually grew larger and larger until the end came. When first seized she weighed about 125 pounds and at the time of her death her weight was variously estimated from 350 to 375.

Powell Held for Grand Jury.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 1.—R. T. Powell, the Norfolk county farmer who opened fire last Wednesday on a trolley car loaded with 57 Jamestown exposition employees, eight of whom were injured, was Saturday held for the next grand jury upon two counts, first, shooting into a public conveyance, and second, feloniously injuring C. B. Dalby, whose nose was penetrated by one of the shots from Powell's gun. Powell gave bond. Powell shot at youth who left the car to enter the Powell watermelon patch.

Convention of W. C. T. U.

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 1.—The great jubilee convention of the Georgia Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at Columbus, Oct. 22-25. The first meeting—welcome night—will be held Tuesday night, Oct. 22, in St. Luke's Methodist church.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL

Noble Mausoleum Is Dedicated at Canton, Ohio.

ROOSEVELT MADE ADDRESS

Superb Monument, the Gift of American People to Martyred President, Is Dedicated with Appropriate Ceremonies.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The exercises dedicating the noble mausoleum erected to the memory of the martyred president, Wm. McKinley, occurred at Canton, O., on Monday. They were most appropriate and impressive and were attended by many great personages of the land.

The invocation, Justice Day's speech, and the reading of a poem preceded the address of President Roosevelt.

The day broke clear and crisp. All day Sunday thousands of people poured into the city to witness the ceremonies and by night every available space in hotels, boarding houses and private residences was taken, many of the late comers being compelled to walk the streets all night.

Throughout the morning trains continued to arrive at short intervals, bringing additional crowds.

Among the prominent guests here were Secretary of the Treasury Geo. B. Cortelyou, former private secretary to President McKinley; C. N. Bliss, chairman of the national republican committee; former Governor Murpay, of New Jersey; Gov. Harris, of Ohio; former Gov. Herrick, of Ohio, and John G. Milburn, of Buffalo, at whose home McKinley died, six years ago.

The American nation, which deeply reveres th ememory of William McKinley, may take pride in the thought that a fitting resting place has been prepared for the dust of the departed statesman. This pride is increased by the reflection that the noble mausoleum at Canton in which his bones have now been placed was built through the generous offerings of the whole people. The site of the mausoleum is the summit of a hill which rises from the borders of Canton's principal city of the dead—Westlawn cemetery. The memorial association acquired about 26 acres of land adjoining the cemetery and laid it out with the idea of making the surroundings of the tomb as effective as possible. The tomb itself is about 100 feet in height, and the summit of the hill upon which it stands is some 75 feet above the surrounding level. The memorial is of circular form, with a nobby proportioned dome, the material of the whole being pink Milford granite. In the interior Doric columns have been used, together with subdued light, to impart a solemn effect, and the walls are finished in light gray Knoxville marble. The sarcophagi containing the bronze caskets in which the remains of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley have been placed are of black and green polished granite, and the flooring beneath them is composed of several rare varieties of granite and marble in different colors. In the wall of the tomb are niches for the caskets containing the bodies of Mr. McKinley's two children.

Upon the grand stairway which leads up to the entrance to the tomb is a bronze heroic statue of Mr. McKinley, and over the entrance is a lunette containing appropriate allegorical figures. Both statue and lunette are the work of Charles Henry Neihous. The statue represents McKinley in the attitude of delivering his Pan-American address, one hand holding his manuscript and the other pushed into his pocket. The stairway where the statue stands is 65 feet in height, and at the foot of the broad flight of steps is a basin of water some 500 feet in length, technically known as the "Longwater," in which the reflection of the tomb may be seen. The driveways, walks and other approaches form, together with the mausoleum itself, a design suggestive of a cross and sword, symbolizing the fact that McKinley was a soldier in war, a chief magistrate in time of war and a martyr in time of peace. The memorial was built from the plans of H. Van Buren Magonigle of New York, and cost $525,000, about $100,000 of the fund raised being held in reserve for the maintenance of the tomb and its surroundings. The chairman of the memorial association, to which credit is due for the results accomplished, is Justice William R. Day.

Well Known Educator Dead.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 1.—Dr. A. J. Battle, one of the oldest educators of the state, and a former president of Mercer university, serving a term of eighteen years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. S. Lowery, in Vineville, after suffering several weeks from an attack of typhoid fever. He was 81 years of age and a native of Powellton, Hancock county, Georgia.

Women Killed by Train.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Henry Holmes and Mrs. U. G. Munsell, of Springfield, Mass., delegates to the convention of Bible students of America, in session here, were run down by a Norfolk and Western switch engine in this city Saturday night almost within sight of their husbands and instantly killed.

Passenger Train Collides With Freig[illegible] With Disastrous Results—Engine[illegible] Was Burned to a Crisp by Esca[illegible] ing Steam.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 1. Eight men were killed, four fatal[illegible] injured and seventeen more or less i[illegible] jured late Saturday when the Chica[illegible] and Wheeling express train No. 1[illegible] on the Baltimore and Ohio railroa[illegible] was wrecked in the yards at Bellair[illegible] Ohio, a few miles below this city. [illegible] freight train had just taken a sidi[illegible] for the express. The passenger trai[illegible] however, failed to pas[illegible] over t[illegible] switch and crashed into the freight[illegible]

The wreck was due, it is said, [illegible] the failure of the operator to thr[illegible] a switch. The westbound freight h[illegible] received orders to meet the passeng[illegible] at the western limits of the Bellai[illegible] yard, and was moving slowly alo[illegible] the siding. At the point where t[illegible] wreck occurred there is a very sha[illegible] curve, which prevents the enginee[illegible] of the eastbound trains from seei[illegible] more than a few feet ahead.

The passenger train swung arou[illegible] the curve very rapidly, being thr[illegible] hours late, and should have gone [illegible] in safety on the main line. T[illegible] switch to the siding, however, h[illegible] not been turned, and the train sh[illegible] on to the siding and into the freig[illegible] train. There was scarcely time [illegible] apply the brakes, and no time f[illegible] the enginemen to jump.

The two big engines came toge[illegible] er and were reduced to junk by t[illegible] fearful impact, but the worst dama[illegible] was done to the smoker, which w[illegible] telescoped so completely by the ba[illegible] gage car that every seat was thro[illegible] out of the coach. Every occupant [illegible] the smoker was badly injured.

The passengers in the other d[illegible] coach and the two Pullman cars we[illegible] tumbled from their seats, but not s[illegible] riously injured.

Engineer Gailbraith was burned [illegible] a crisp by the escaping steam.

GAINESVILLE FURNITURE COMPANY

WANTED

Every Man, Woman and Child in Gainesville

to call at our store for the greatest strength creator and health restorer which we have ever sold—Vinol. It is not a patent medicine, but the most valuable cod liver preparation made by an extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron which is a needful constituent for the blood added.

We do not believe there is a person in this vicinity who cannot be benefited by Vinol at this season of the year. Vinol is delicious to the taste, and it is recognized as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol is unequaled for hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Creates an appetite and makes those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

We have had so much experience with Vinol and seen so many wonderful results from its use that we offer to return money without question if it does not accomplish all we claim for it.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Florida.

DEATH OF MR. ELVINGTON.

Well-Known Levy County Man Passed Away in Gainesville Monday.

James O. Elvington of Otter Creek died at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium in this city at 8 o'clock Monday night of heart failure, brought about presumably by an attack of acute rheumatism which had troubled him for some time.

Mr. Elvington, whose home was at Otter Creek, where he has been for several years engaged in the naval stores business, was brought to Gainesville several weeks ago and placed in the hospital, where he has received the best of attention. Everything possible was done for him, but to no avail.

Deceased was a native of North Carolina, and was about 38 years of age. He was a man of excellent character, and was well liked by all who knew him.

The remains were taken Tuesday to Fair Bluff, N. C., where the interment will be held. They were accompanied by his father, Geo. W. Elvington, who was with him at the time of his death, T. W. Shands of this city, and J. S. Fisher of Otter Creek, with whom he was associated in business.

Deceased is survived by his parents, one brother and one sister, to whom the sympathy of the community and friends is extended.

JURY LIST WAS DRAWN.

Clerk Wienges, Sheriff Fennell and Justice Colman Drew Names.

The list of thirty-six names, which comprises the panel for the coming fall term of the circuit court, which will convene in this city on November 11, has been drawn, Clerk S. H. Wienges, Sheriff L. W. Fennell and Justice Geo. M. Colman drawing the names from the box.

It has been the practice in nearly every county in the State to publish the names of those drawn as jurors in advance, but Clerk Wienges does not believe this to be the proper thing, as it invites the opportunity of schemers to interview the jurors and ascertain how they stand on certain matters which may be pending.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Home and Foreign Societies to Be Entertained by Mrs. Thomas.

Mrs. T. F. Thomas, at her home on West Main street N., will entertain the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, this afternoon.

The meeting will be held at half-past three o'clock, and every member of the societies is cordially invited to be present. There will be a short program.

Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

NO MEETING WAS HELD.

Owing to the Season Football Enthusiasts Could Not Get Together.

Owing to the fact that the first of the month fell on Tuesday, and those interested in the organization of a town football team were too busy to attend, there was no meeting at the White House on Monday night, although Lieutenant Ball, who is engineering the scheme, was on hand.

Lieutenant Ball, who is a great football enthusiast, was somewhat disappointed that the meeting failed to materialize, but realized the fact that the merchants and clerks were busy posting books, making out bills, etc., attendant upon the first of each month, and many have assured him that they would be on hand next Friday night, when a meeting will be held at the White House.

It is very important that a town team be organized, as the University will have a good team, and if a team can be organized among the young men of the city some fine sport will be assured for this season.

Lieutenant Ball states that it is his desire to make a complete organization Friday night, and he urges everyone interested to be present.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

R. T. Schafer, the well-known baker who owns and conducts the Keystone Bakery, North Gainesville, always did believe in something good to eat, especially on the occasion of his birthday.

Mr. Schafer observed this occasion on Sunday in the greatest style, as far as something to eat was concerned. It was his thirty-third year, and his good wife prepared a dinner of roast turkey and other things good enough for the gods. Only a few intimate friends outside the family were present, but the spread was thoroughly enjoyed, and late in the afternoon those who had been so fortunate as to sit around the festive board departed, wishing the hoast and his family many pleasant returns of the day.

Meeting of the Boards.

The Board of County Commissioners and the Board of Public Instruction held their regular monthly sessions Tuesday, and both were attended by every member.

Proceedings of the meetings will be given as soon as the same have been entered upon the minute-books.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GEORGE OLMSTEAD WANTS $40,000

TRAIN WENT THROUGH BRIDGE

Mr. Olmstead Was the Conductor, and in His Allegations Sets Up That He Has Been Injured, Which Will Incapacitate Him for Duty.

G. P. Olmstead, formerly of this city and who is well known throughout this section of the country, was the victim of an accident in Texas, while serving as conductor of a freight train on the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western railroad, in which he claims to have sustained serious injuries. Mr. Olmstead is now laid up in a hospital in San Antonia, Texas, and the following account of his misfortune, taken from The Houston Post of the 22d inst., will prove of interest to friends of the man here:

"G. P. Olmstead, who claims that he was precipitated in the San Jacinto river while acting as conductor of a work train, has filed suit in the district court against the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western Railroad company to recover damages to the extent of $40,000.

"In the petition it is alleged that the bridge over San Jacinto river broke in two on July 15, 1907, permitting the train upon which the plaintiff was conductor to fall to the ground and into the bed of the river. As a result of the fall, Olmstead claims that a number of his ribs were broken and pressed in; that his chest has been lessened in size and his lung capacity decreased. He also claims that he received severe blows upon his sides, back, loins, head and other portions of his body, and that the lowest vertebra of the spinal column is broken."

DEATH OF MRS. MILLER.

Old and Highly Respected Lady Passed to Her Reward.

Mrs Jemima Miller, seventy-two years of age and one of the most beloved of the residents of the West End, died Saturday morning at 5 o'clock.

Deceased was born in Georgia, near Valdosta, but has been in this State and county for the past thirty years. She was a devout Christian, a member of the Christian church, and was active until prevented from active work on account of her advanced age.

The funeral was held Sunday, the interment being in Pine Grove cemetery, Elder Lindsay officiating. It was one of the largest attended funerals ever held in the county, nearly a thousand friends of the deceased coming from every section of the county.

Mrs. Miller is survived by four sons, W. H. Jones, G. W. Miller and D. P. Miller of Trenton, and M. I. Jones of this city, and four daughters, Mesdames Martha Prevatt of Valdosta, Ga., Harriet Atkins of Bell, and W. H. Everett and W. W. Weeks of Trenton, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

JUDSON JOTTINGS.

Judson, Oct. 1.—R. S. Tucker went to Jonesville to R. P. Miller's yesterday. He brought Miss Estell Miller home with him, to clerk for him in his store.

Dr. L. R. Weeks made his appearance in Judson Saturday. He has just returned from Atlanta, Ga., and the springs in North Carolina, where he has been for his health. He is improved wonderfully since he went away. He thinks he will soon return to finish his medical course.

The farmers are all feeling blue over their cotton, which is still in the fields. We have had so much rain that the cotton seeds are sprouted and are looking very bad.

The cotton crop is not moving much yet. The Farmers' Union wants more for their cotton than the present price, and they think they will get it later.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Negro Boy Mistreats Two Little White Girls.

Two little white girls were on their way from North Gainesville to the city yesterday evening, when a negro boy ran into one of them with his bicycle and knocked her down. He then grabbed the other by the arm and tore the waist of her dress nearly off, when he remounted his wheel and rode off laughing. It would have fared badly with the boy had the relatives of the children been able to discover him, but the children were so frightened at the time that they could not tell who he was. A sharp lookout is being kept for him, however, and if he is positively identified the scoundrel will be severely punished.

Fatally Shot at Supper Table.

Jamestown, Ohio, Oct. 1.—William Clemmer, a prosperous farmer, was fatally shot when at the supper table with his wife and six children. A bullet came through the window from the revolver of some unknown person and entered Clemer's head. The victim fell dying to the floor. The authorities are searching for a man with whom Clemmer had had a difficulty concerning a financial transaction. It is said by the police that this man had threatened to kill Clemmer at the first opportunity.

Walthour sustained a severe concussion of the brain and was taken to a hospital where he remains unconscious and in a serious condition.

The pacemaker was severely hurt when he collided with the ambulance man.

FOUR KILLED IN WRECK.

Accident Occurs on Seaboard Air-Line Near Alamo, Ga.

Americus, Ga., Oct. 1.—A wreck caused by a washout occurred Sunday morning near Alamo, and four men were instantly killed.

The bodies of the four men killed in the wreck were brought to Americus aboard a special train. The dead are:

Engineer Charles Hines, of Americus; negro fireman and brakeman, an unknown white man, supposed to be a tramp.

The conductor escaped injury, as the caboose was not derailed. The wreck was caused by a washout.

C. M. McKinney of Louise spent yesterday in this city as a guest of friends.

Sam R. Chitty of Micanapy was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

Clark Evans is spending a day or two at Tacoma as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chamberlin.

F. M. Townsend of Istachatta is in the city on a visit to relatives, the families of Geo. R. and T. B. Ellis.

J. F. Donaldson of Cyril was in the city yesterday. He called at The Sun office and renewed his subscription.

Geo. W. Dyal of Monteocha, one of the well-known merchants of that section, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

G. Henry Futch, formerly of this city but now residing in Jacksonville, was in Gainesville for a few hours yesterday, going on the afternoon train to Cedar Key. Mr. Futch is holding a lucrative traveling position.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cone of Raleigh, Mrs. Wm. Smith and daughter, Miss Janie, of Wacahoota, and Mrs. S. M. Witherspoon of this city, form a pleasant party who have gone to Jamestown and other points in Virginia for a few weeks' outing.

Joseph Waits of Fairbanks was in the city yesterday. Mr. Waits has enjoyed a visit from his daughter-in-law, Mrs. May Waits, and three grandchildren, Francis, Josephine and Henry Waits, of Lakeland. They left yesterday via the Atlantic Coasts Line for home.

No home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the entire family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50 cents. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headache or stomach trouble. J. W. McCollum & Co.

J. B. Padgett has returned from St. Louis, where he went with Major W. R. Thomas a few days ago to purchase horses and mules for this market. He states that a good selection was made, and the stock will be placed on the market at once. Major Thomas is expected to arrive on Friday, having stopped a day or two en route.

Henry E. Jones of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine. J. W. to call at our store for the greatest strength creator and health restorer which we have ever sold—Vinol. It is not a patent medicine, but the most valuable cod liver preparation made by an extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron which is a needful constituent for the blood added.

We do not believe there is a person in this vicinity who cannot be benefited by Vinol at this season of the year. Vinol is delicious to the taste, and it is recognized as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol is unequaled for hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Creates an appetite and makes those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

We have had so much experience with Vinol and seen so many wonderful results from its use that we offer to return money without question if it does not accomplish all we claim for it.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Florida.

DEATH OF MR. ELVINGTON.

Well-Known Levy County Man Passed Away in Gainesville Monday.

James O. Elvington of Otter Creek died at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium in this city at 8 o'clock Monday night of heart failure, brought about presumably by an attack of acute rheumatism which had troubled him for some time.

Mr. Elvington, whose home was at Otter Creek, where he has been for several years engaged in the naval stores business, was brought to Gainesville several weeks ago and placed in the hospital, where he has received the best of attention. Everything possible was done for him, but to no avail.

Deceased was a native of North Carolina, and was about 38 years of age. He was a man of excellent character, and was well liked by all who knew him.

The remains were taken Tuesday to Fair Bluff, N. C., where the interment will be held. They were accompanied by his father, Geo. W. Elvington, who was with him at the time of his death, T. W. Shands of this city, and J. S. Fisher of Otter Creek, with whom he was associated in business.

Deceased is survived by his parents, one brother and one sister, to whom the sympathy of the community and friends is extended.

JURY LIST WAS DRAWN.

The list of thirty-six names, which comprises the panel for the coming fall term of the circuit court, which will convene in this city on November 11, has been drawn, Clerk S. H. Wienges, Sheriff L. W. Fennell and Justice Geo. M. Colman drawing the names from the box.

It has been the practice in nearly every county in the State to publish the names of those drawn as jurors in advance, but Clerk Wienges does not believe this to be the proper thing, as it invites the opportunity of schemers to interview the jurors and ascertain how they stand on certain matters which may be pending.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Home and Foreign Societies to Be Entertained by Mrs. Thomas.

Mrs. T. F. Thomas, at her home on West Main street N., will entertain the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, this afternoon.

The meeting will be held at half-past three o'clock, and every member of the societies is cordially invited to be present. There will be a short program.

NO MEETING WAS HELD.

Owing to the Season Football Enthusiasts Could Not Get Together.

Owing to the fact that the first of the month fell on Tuesday, and those interested in the organization of a town football team were too busy to attend, there was no meeting at the White House on Monday night, although Lieutenant Ball, who is engineering the scheme, was on hand.

Lieutenant Ball, who is a great football enthusiast, was somewhat disappointed that the meeting failed to materialize, but realized the fact that the merchants and clerks were busy posting books, making out bills, etc., attendant upon the first of each month, and many have assured him that they would be on hand next Friday night, when a meeting will be held at the White House.

It is very important that a town team be organized, as the University will have a good team, and if a team can be organized among the young men of the city some fine sport will be assured for this season.

Lieutenant Ball states that it is his desire to make a complete organization Friday night, and he urges everyone interested to be present.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

R. T. Schafer, the well-known baker who owns and conducts the Keystone Bakery, North Gainesville, always did believe in something good to eat, especially on the occasion of his birthday.

Mr. Schafer observed this occasion on Sunday in the greatest style, as far as something to eat was concerned. It was his thirty-third year, and his good wife prepared a dinner of roast turkey and other things good enough for the gods. Only a few intimate friends outside the family were present, but the spread was thoroughly enjoyed, and late in the afternoon those who had been so fortunate as to sit around the festive board departed, wishing the hoast and his family many pleasant returns of the day.

Meeting of the Boards.

The Board of County Commissioners and the Board of Public Instruction held their regular monthly sessions Tuesday, and both were attended by every member.

Proceedings of the meetings will be given as soon as the same have been entered upon the minute-books.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GEORGE OLMSTEAD WANTS $40,000

Sustained Injuries in a Wreck on a Texas Railroad.

TRAIN WENT THROUGH BRIDGE

Mr. Olmstead Was the Conductor, and in His Allegations Sets Up That He Has Been Injured, Which Will Incapacitate Him for Duty.

G. P. Olmstead, formerly of this city and who is well known throughout this section of the country, was the victim of an accident in Texas, while serving as conductor of a freight train on the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western railroad, in which he claims to have sustained serious injuries. Mr. Olmstead is now laid up in a hospital in San Antonia, Texas, and the following account of his misfortune, taken from The Houston Post of the 22d inst., will prove of interest to friends of the man here:

"G. P. Olmstead, who claims that he was precipitated in the San Jacinto river while acting as conductor of a work train, has filed suit in the district court against the Beaumont, Sour Lake and Western Railroad company to recover damages to the extent of $40,000.

"In the petition it is alleged that the bridge over San Jacinto river broke in two on July 15, 1907, permitting the train upon which the plaintiff was conductor to fall to the ground and into the bed of the river. As a result of the fall, Olmstead claims that a number of his ribs were broken and pressed in; that his chest has been lessened in size and his lung capacity decreased. He also claims that he received severe blows upon his sides, back, loins, head and other portions of his body, and that the lowest vertebra of the spinal column is broken."

Old and Highly Respected Lady Passed to Her Reward.

Mrs Jemima Miller, seventy-two years of age and one of the most beloved of the residents of the West End, died Saturday morning at 5 o'clock.

Deceased was born in Georgia, near Valdosta, but has been in this State and county for the past thirty years. She was a devout Christian, a member of the Christian church, and was active until prevented from active work on account of her advanced age.

The funeral was held Sunday, the interment being in Pine Grove cemetery, Elder Lindsay officiating. It was one of the largest attended funerals ever held in the county, nearly a thousand friends of the deceased coming from every section of the county.

Mrs. Miller is survived by four sons, W. H. Jones, G. W. Miller and D. P. Miller of Trenton, and M. I. Jones of this city, and four daughters, Mesdames Martha Prevatt of Valdosta, Ga., Harriet Atkins of Bell, and W. H. Everett and W. W. Weeks of Trenton, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

JUDSON JOTTINGS.

Judson, Oct. 1.—R. S. Tucker went to Jonesville to R. P. Miller's yesterday. He brought Miss Estell Miller home with him, to clerk for him in his store.

Dr. L. R. Weeks made his appearance in Judson Saturday. He has just returned from Atlanta, Ga., and the springs in North Carolina, where he has been for his health. He is improved wonderfully since he went away. He thinks he will soon return to finish his medical course.

The farmers are all feeling blue over their cotton, which is still in the fields. We have had so much rain that the cotton seeds are sprouted and are looking very bad.

The cotton crop is not moving much yet. The Farmers' Union wants more for their cotton than the present price, and they think they will get it later.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. I. W. McCollum & Co.

OKLAHOMA ELECTION PLEASES DEMOCRATS

Politicians Urge President Not To Admit State in Union.

THE PRESIDENT AFTER BEARS

After a Speech-making Tour He Will Invade the Cane-brake of Mississippi—Newsy Letter From the National Capital.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—The result of the Oklahoma election, and the glorious Democratic victory, is of immense importance to the Democracy of the United States. Indeed it may change the result of the next National election. No wonder the Republican politicians are urging President Roosevelt to refuse to issue his proclamation admitting the State on the technical ground that the constitution as adopted does not provide a Republican form of government. But machine politicians are selfish and often shortsighted, and if the President should refuse to allow Oklahoma to be admitted he would raise an issue that would overshadow perhaps all other issues, namely, the right of the people to govern themselves without interference from the Federal Government, or the partisan scheming of interested politicians. To oppose the admittance of Oklahoma, because the Democrats have carried the election, would be viewed as a partisan effort, and enough voters in the close and doubtful States would show their displeasure to overwhelm the party that attempted it. The question of executive interference in home affairs has also been injected into the campaign in Cleveland by the letter of President Roosevelt to Mr. Burton advising him to run against Tom Johnson for mayor of that city on partisan grounds, but the Republicans appear to be already sick of that issue, and the 3-cent fare on street railroads will predominate.

President Roosevelt, after over three months' vacation, is off on his speech-making tour, and a trip down the Mississippi river. This is to be followed by a bear hunt of seventeen days in the swamps of Mississippi, which to a safe and sane man would be more feared at this time of the year than all other dangers for the cane-brakes are free breeders of fever and ague from which, let us hope, the proverbial luck of the President will allow him to escape.

There is a recrudescence of frauds and grafting, for besides the Oregon and Idaho scandal for which United States Senator Borah is now on trial, other land frauds are reported in New Mexico, in which the late Republican governor is said to be implicated, and are reported to cover a vast acreage of the public land. A serious scandal is also reported in the War Department involving high officials in connection with appliances for launching life boats on army transports. Mayor Rathbone, who attained notoriety in connection with the Cuban postoffice frauds, appears to be mixed up in the matter, and it is stated by Captain Irvine that every effort to induce President Roosevelt to order an investigation has failed. What is this strange and occult influence that Mayor Rathbone appears to wield over his Republican associates who hold official positions? We will probably never know until there is a Democratic Congress to unravel it.

The Hague fiasco is the last we shall hear of international peace and arbitration for a long time, and the Roosevelt delegates will come home with no laurels, and the subject is a sore one in administration circles.

There is a general regret here among Democrats that any rivalry for the Democratic nomination for President should result in widening the breach in the ranks, or disheartening any faction who see fit to push the candidacy of any favorite. It is conceded that to win practically all Democrats must unite on the ticket that will be selected, and the united wisdom of the delegates from all States will be greater than the judgment of individuals, who are apt to be warped by their friendship for some particular man.

The declared intention of Mr. Hearst that he "will not run for President on the Independence League ticket, or on any other ticket," and the general tone of his statement just published, is viewed here with satisfaction, although there is a feeling that what he says is intended as a notification almost amounting to a threat that he will no longer continue to affiliate with the Democracy, but "will devote myself heart and soul to the organization and extension of the Independence League."

ROBERT MILLER.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

Warrant Taken Out by Wife.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 1.—Britt Lee, a cotton mill operator, is in jail on a charge of attempting criminal assault on his own daughter, Birdie Lee, 17 years old. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out by his wife who claims that this is not the first offense of the kind that he has attempted. She made up her mind to prosecute him to the full extent of the law.

CHILD WIFE'S AMBITION.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Wheeling, W. Va., says.

A child wife's ambition is the cause of W. H. Hearne, the millionaire attorney, announcing that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of this state. He is 60 years of age. A month ago he wedded Miss Campbell, aged 18, of St. Louis. Mrs. Hearne wants to be the first lady in the state.

Mr. Hearne has never before been in politics. Hearne will make a tour of the state in an automobile. Hearne is a brother of H. Hearne, president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, who recently died.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.

Changes in the Southern.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 1.—General Superintendent H. E. Hutchens, of the western district of the Southern railroad Saturday gave out several changes that will be made as a beginner in the second step of the policy of retrenchment adopted by the Southern. The Chattanooga division, which was established Jan. 1, last, and the Mooresville division in the northern district have been abolished. The Chattanooga division is merged into the Knoxville and Atlanta divisions, while the Mooresville division is merged into the Winston-Salem division. The changes take effect October 1st.

A NATIONAL DISGRACE.

Another good Republican Congressman has been indicted and arrested, charged with conspiracy to defraud, and also for obtaining money under false pretenses. This time it is the Honorable E. Burd Cassel of Pennsylvania. Mr. Cassel and eighteen other good Republicans were picked up on September 18th on charges originally preferred by Democratic State Treasurer Berry of Pennsylvania, in connection with the theft of five million dollars from the treasury of that State in transactions relating to the furnishing of the new capitol building at Harrisburg. Several State officers are among the fellow-grafters of Mr. Cassel, for whom warrants have also been issued. No wonder the Pennsylvania Republican leaders regard the Democratic motto, "thou shalt not steal," as a personal affront to themselves.

WAR VERSUS PEACE.

The American plans at the Hague for a permanent court of arbitration failed by the vote of 9 to 5, England and Germany voting against the proposition. A compromise, or makeshift, proposed by England, that the various governments should consider the matter and how best to overcome the difficulties that had baffled the Peace Conference, was carried by 8 to 5. So the Peace Conference has been a failure, as everyone with a grain of sense knew it would be in advance of the meeting. What is the use of trying to agree on arbitration instead of war, when every country is straining its resources to build larger navies and keep up standing armies. The only chance for peace is to lick the fellow into submission that declares for war.

INDIANS ON THE TRAIL

The Methods Used by the Red Men to Communicate.

SIGNS THAT SPEAK VOLUMES

Sticks and Stones Have a Language of Their Own and Serve to Indicate Direction, Departure, Intention, Warning, Claim or Demand.

As time has passed and civilization has changed Indian conditions, I was under the impression that our red brothers had forgotten the use of signs in their travels, but as I was loitering about the hills in Siskiyou county some time ago I came across a genuine Indian sign such as I had not seen for a dozen years before. It was a simple little sign in appearance, but it was full of meaning to those who could read it—a long stick with one end stuck in the ground, the other leaning and pointing up the road. The stick was elevated at an angle of only about ten degrees from the ground and was supported on a stone. It told some Indian that his friend had been along there and had gone ahead in the direction pointed out by the stick.

I marveled at it, but on investigation found that the Indians of California still use signs to convey intelligence to each each. I found that among the Cocopahs, Cohuillas, Pimas and Yumas the sign is as much in use as ever.

While traveling in San Bernardino county later on I came across a peculiar grouping of stones, and at once saw that some Indian had left a sign so that all other Indians might know that water was to be found in a certain direction. The stones were lying in a complete circle, and in the center was a long triangular stone with the sharp point indicating a specific direction. The sign was plain to one versed in such things, and in order to see if the same sign was universal, for I had seen it elsewhere, I followed the direction pointed out by the long stone and found a little spring.

This arrangement of stones I had often seen in a dozen different places in the middle west and as a variant which was also found in California. I have seen a mound of stones similar to a miner's monument, with a pointed stone resting on top, pointing toward water. In many parts of the country, especially in the desert parts of California and Arizona, the question of water supply for travelers is one that requires serious consideration, and I have known men to pass within a few hundred yards of water without knowing it, because they could not read Indian signs. The sign was in plain view and was placed there because the Indians recognized the necessity of telling all who came along that they could find water. True, there was not a big board set up with "Water" painted on it, but to the initiated it was equally plain. There is not a trail in all the southwest that runs near a spring that does not have the sign openly displayed. I have even seen instances where the water was so far from the regular trail that special signs have been made to show where it is.

Sometimes, however, these circles may not mean water at all, and then it is necessary to understand the intricacies of the Indian mind to understand just what he is driving at. I remember once when I was hunting on the Republican river I came across a circle of buffalo skulls, which attracted my attention because of their peculiar arrangement. Sixteen skulls were set in a semicircle with their noses pointing down the river. In the center of the circle was a skull on which were painted thirty-six red lines. Near the skulls were two small sticks placed upright in the ground, and at the top of each stick were tied two bundles of hair.

A Pawnee Indian was with me and told me that thirty-six Pawnees had camped there. They had made a raid against a camp of Comanches containing sixteen tents or lodges and had taken four scalps. They were now returning home down the river. To the ordinary observer this arrangement of skulls and sticks would have given no more impression than the idea that some one had been amusing himself by playing with these buffalo skulls. To the Indian the arrangement was a complete story.

Indians use signs for several specific purposes, the most prevalent being that of guidance, but they are also used for direction, departure, intention, condition, warning and claim or demand. I was hunting with a party of Utes in southwestern Colorado, and we had separated with the understanding that we were to meet again at a specified place and all go back to the village together. On reaching the appointed place one of the party was not there, but the rest started to the village, paying no attention to his nonappearance. I asked if they were not going to wait until he came back, but they said he had been there and had gone on to the village without waiting for us to come on. When I expressed surprise I was shown a long stick standing in the trail with a bunch of grass fastened to its top. The stick was leaning toward the village, and this told the story of the missing man as plainly as if he had written a letter about it. I found that a similar stick had been erected at the top of every hill between there and where the village could be seen. He took no chances of the sticks falling down and told the story over several times.

The same sign is used by the Indians of southern Alaska and also by the Winnebagoes of Manitoba. The Sioux use a split stick with a short stick in the split, pointing in the direction taken.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Judged by Their Cats.

"No, ma'am," said an Irish maid of much experience as she returned to a New York intelligence office the other day "I didn't engage with that family. I didn't like the looks of their cat."

"Of their cat!" repeated the owner of the office in amazement. "Why, Katie, I'm sure they wouldn't keep a cat that was in any way dangerous."

"Not dangerous, no, ma'am, but a restless, unhappy looking creature that didn't speak well for the family," replied the girl. "I always judge a family by their cat—if they have one. A sleek, comfortable pussy who comes up and rubs against you means a quiet, good natured family and one that's not worrying about ways and means, but a nervous, unfriendly looking cat reflects a household which is on the verge of nervous prostration or financial ruin or some other horrible trouble.

"I've been living with families and studying their cats for twenty-five years, and I've never known the sign to fail. A family that can't make its cat happy is one to make any servant miserable."—New York Press.

Psychologically Explained.

Mrs. Flaherty, who earns her living and maintains two clean little rooms in an uptown tenement by going out to do washing and day's work, has been a widow for many years, and entertains a strong prejudice against marriage for any but the young. "'Tis all right at that time o' life," she maintains, "but not for old people with gray hairs. Then 'tis onsuitable and the height o' foolishness." Holding these opinions as she does, it was a severe shock to Mrs. Flaherty to learn that one of her best customers, a widow of threescore and ten, was about to be married for the second time. Almost tearfully she confided her sentiments to another patron.

"Think of it! Her a-fixin' all them fine clothes and takin' as much pride in it as if she was to be a bride of twenty instead of an old woman that'll never see seventy again! Why," and her voice dropped to an awed whisper, "at her time o' life I believe 'tis the ravin' o' death is on the woman!"—New York Times.

A Scotch Excuse.

A canny Scot was brought before a magistrate on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. "What have you to say for yourself, sir?" demanded the magistrate. "You look like a respectable man and ought to be ashamed to stand there."

"I am verra sorry, sir, but I cam' up in bad company fra Glascow," humbly replied the prisoner.

"What sort of company?"

"A lot of teetotalers!" was the startling response.

"Do you mean to say teetotalers are bad company?" thundered the magistrate. "I think they are the best of company for such as you."

"Beggin' yer pardon, sir," answered the prisoner, "ye're wrong; for I had a bottle of whusky an' I had to drink it all myself!"—Reynolds' Newspaper.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. Earls, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

The Reason.

All sorts and conditions of men have excellent reasons for their position in life. Illustrated Bits tells of a tramp who had no illusions about the cause of his own condition:

Mrs. Finehealth (at hotel entrance)—No. I have no money to spare for you. I do not see why an ablebodied man like you should go about begging.

Lazy Tramp—I s'pose, mum, it's fer about the same reason that a healthy woman like you boards at a hotel, instead of keeping house.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at all drug stores.

Mixed Liquors Barred.

Rory MacSnory was the village blacksmith and one of the most powerful singers in the choir of the kirk at Auchleucheries. To show off his voice to full advantage he would vary his style from bass to alto and from alto to treble in the same hymn.

The minister had long observed that Rory's methods were upsetting the general melody of the congregation's singing, and at length he resolved to bring the culprit to book.

"Hymn 34," he announced, "and a' thegither. And, Mr. MacSnory, if ye're tae sing tenor, sing tenor, or if ye're tae sing bass, sing bass, but we'll hae nae mair o' yer shandygaff!"—Dundee Advertiser.

Strong Soup.

In the life of William Stokes, written by his son, it is told how Stokes was sent over to Dublin during the great famine to show the people how to make soup. Stokes asked a starving beggar why she did not go and get some of the soup that was being freely distributed.

"Soup, is it, your honor? Sure, it isn't soup at all." "And what is it, then?" inquired Stokes. "It is nothin', your honor, but a quart of water boiled down to a pint to make it sthrong!"

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valued for sprains and swellings. For sale by all druggists.

ATROCIOUS CRIME.

Negro in Virginia Shoots Man and Assaults His Fiancee.

Washington, Oct. 1.—A posse has been scouring Alexandria county, Virginia, for a negro who waylaid and perhaps fatally shot John William Mullen, aged 21, near Rosslyn, opposite this city, and then assaulted Miss Amelia Weiss, aged 17, Mulen's fiancee, with whom he was out walking.

Without warning the negro opened fire on Mullen, shooting him through the mouth and splitting his tongue. He then dragged the girl into a thicket, holding her captive for more than an hour. As he left her, he said he was going back to her lover and finish his job."

Mullen, however, was able to make his way up the hill and tell of the crime, the girl meantime finding her way to her home, where she informed her parents.

The affair is regarded as one of the most atrocious that has occurred in this vicinity, and if the negro is found it is believed that the threats of lynching, freely indulged, will be put into effect.

JAPS LOOT ALASKAN TOWN.

Complaint Has Been Made to the U. S. Authorities.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 1.—A report was made to United States Consul Smith, of Vancouver, Saturday by Captain Munroe, of the schooner Casec, of the pirating of an Alaskan village on Litak bay, on southwest Modiak island, by the crew of a Japanese sailing schooner operating in Behring sea this season. The Casec called at Litak bay for water and the Russian priests asked Captain Munroe to inform the United States authorities of the outrages.

The Japanese landed from the schooner and broke open the houses. Another report was received that the Japanese had landed on Shellkoff island and killed cattle running on the ranges there.

Gun and Pepper Used on Officers.

Centerville, Ala., Oct. 1.—When deputies arrested Adolphus Nennent, a Hungarian, and were taking him away, his wife ran out with a gun and a handful of pepper. The former she handed to her husband and the latter she dashed into the face of the officers. Nennet then opened fire on the officers with the gun, but did not hit either of them. They were painfully hurt, however, by the pepper. Later the Hungarian was put in jail here.

TUMORS CONQUERED

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it is well advanced.

So called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thigh.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its use.

The following letters should convince every suffering woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 836 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that only an operation could help me. I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 26 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and today I am a well women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was told by my physician that I had a fibroid tumor and that I would have to be operated upon. I wrote to you for advice, which I followed carefully and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am not only cured of the tumor but other female troubles and can do all my own work after eigh years of suffering."

Mrs. S. J. Barber, of Scott, N. Y. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Sometime ago I wrote you for advice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to-day am a well woman."

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound far and near."

Such testimony as above is convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for Tumor Growths as well as other distressing ills of women, and such symptoms as Bearing-down Sensations, Displacements, Irregularities and Backache, etc. Women should remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women Don't forget to insist upon it when some druggist asks you to accept something else which he calls "just as good."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

Boy Drowned at Savannah, Ga.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 1.—Joseph Bazett, 14 years old, was drowned Sunday morning while in swimming with some other lads at Mell's landing. A singular circumstance connected with the drowning is that young Bazett had been rescued from the water half an hour before he was drowned. His comrades pulled him out just as he was disappearing for what would have been the last time. They took him to shore unconscious, and rolled him about until the water ran from his body. Then he recovered his senses, and after a few minutes decided he would join the boys, who had returned to their aquatic diversions. Presently he got beyond his depth again, and this time he was swept away by the tide before rescue could be effected.

15 Years for Joe Watts.

Abbeville, Ga., Oct. 1.—In the case of the state versus Joe Watts, charged with the murder of Pete McDuffie, the jury brought in a verdict for manslaughter. Judge Whipple charged the jury that he would not be justified in rendering a verdict for murder. The jury stood for manslaughter and set for manslaughter. Attorney Jones has already notified that he will appeal for new trial. Judge Whipple gave him fifteen years in the penitentiary at hard labor.

Comer Criticized; He Only Laughs.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 1.—The English of Governor Comer is severely criticized by the Montgomery Advertiser in a leading editorial. His recent letter to the members of the legislature telling them that he will call an extra session is cited as gotten up without regard to grammar and proper construction. Other letters are discussed and the paper bemoans the possession of an executive who cannot write good language. Governor Comer did not deny that the letter was bad, only laughing when shown the criticism.

HOW BONNER WON SUCCESS

The career of Robert Bonner, the veteran publisher, furnishes a signal illustration of the value of persistent and sagacious advertising. When he began the publication of the paper whose phenomenal success brought him fame and fortune, he did not wait for the people to find out, slowly and gradually, the interesting features of his journal.

He forced his enterprise upon public attention by a systematic lavishness of expenditure for advertising which at that time was without precedent or parallel. Whole pages of daily newspapers were secured at high prices to blazon forth the merits of his undertaking.

From one end of the country to the other the names of Bonner and his Ledger were made familiar to the people by constant repetition.

Conservative publishers, jogging along in the ruts of old routine, prophesied bankruptcy and ruin for this unconventional innovator, but Bonner kept on spending a large share of his receipts in buying publicity, and those receipts increased with startling rapidity.

Every dollar disbursed in this way brought in more dollars until croakers were confounded and pessimists in this particular branch of business silenced by his tremendous success.

The lesson is one that is as well worth heeding today as it was forty years ago.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

ABOUT OYSTERS

It's a matter of confidence—confidence in the person selling them. If you know they are handled properly, prepared and cooked cleanly, then you are satisfied.

Oysters require careful attention when away from the coast and should be prepared by one who knows at a glance if they are fit to be cooked.

For two seasons I have prepared and served you the best Oysters grown, and have never had one complaint.

They are here now—and, as they should be, First-Class in every way.

Open every night till 10:30—later if necessary.
